My Resolutions

I want to be a good girl, so I reflect on myself and try to make improvements.

I have two problems that need to be solved.

First of all, I am not good at Chinese. So I want to be better at Chinese and get better grades. In order to fix the problem, first I'm going to read more Chinese books and newspapers. Second, I'm going to pay more attention in class and study harder. Then, I won't fail in the examinations.

Secondly, I really hate eating vegetables. In order to stay healthy, I hope to eat more and different varieties of vegetables. Therefore, I'm going to force myself to eat vegetables. Moreover, I'm going to put different kinds of salad dressings on the vegetables to stimulate my appetite. Last but not least, when I think of the poor children that are starving to death, I am grateful for having food to eat.

I am expecting to see myself reaching these goals.
