Good Friend, Good Deeds

Kovit is my best friend. He is now ten years old, so he is younger than me because I am almost eleven years old. He lives in Sha Tin Siu Lek Yuen.

He is a bit tall, around 142 cm. He has short straight hair, big eyes, big ears and a small mouth. He is very forgiving. For example, whenever I do something wrong to him, he will always forgive me. He is also kind and polite. He never argues or quarrels with me. I love my friend because he is forgiving, kind and polite to me.

Yesterday at the school playground, I was very upset because I fought with my classmate, Rex. But Kovit cheered me up by telling a joke which was about him and his mother.

Kovit is hard-working. For example, he always stays in his seat and does his homework at the recess. Two more examples, at home, he helps his mom with the housework. Moreover, he helps his family to tidy their rooms. Therefore, his parents like him because he is very helpful. Also, Kovit never quarrels or argues with his parents. The other parents appreciate him very much.

I am very happy because Kovit is forgiving, polite and helpful. I have learnt lots of good character traits from him. He helps me a lot at school. Thus, I hope we can be friends forever!
