A Memorable Day with my Mum

The day was 31st March. It was an uneasy day for me. I was at home in the morning. My heart was pounding hard because I was nervous. I was waiting for the result of applying for secondary school. Mum comforted me by saying that 'things will be fine'.

I went to the lobby and checked the mailbox after breakfast. Unfortunately, it was empty inside. I was disappointed about that. The security guard told me that the postman would deliver letters twice in the morning. I thanked him. Then, I went back home and waited impatiently. 'Everything will be fine!' Don't be too worried', Mum comforted me again.

I got ants in my pants when one of my friends told me that he received a phone call from a secondary school! Mum said maybe my results were not good enough so I could not gain admission to a secondary school. I was anxious and pulling a long face because I was upset.

Suddenly, the phone rang loudly. I rushed to answer it. It was from Tsang Shiu Tim Secondary School. I was as happy as a lark. It brought excellent news! My mum looked surprised and exclaimed, 'It's a miracle!' Of course, it was unexpected. We cheered and relaxed. I was shaking my hands happily.

In the end, Mum rewarded me with a new phone. This day was spectacular! I felt extremely delighted. The day was memorable because I learnt that chances are for the one who have prepared.
