Good Behaviour of My Friend

My best friend is Ben. He is ten years old. He is tall and fat. He has a small mouth, big ears and small eyes. He has beautiful white teeth too.

Ben is helpful because he always helps his classmates with their homework. He is humorous because he always makes us laugh. He is also kind because he is always friendly to all of us. In class, he lends his eraser to his classmates. At recess, he never fights with his classmates and sometimes he cleans the whiteboard.

He carries books for his teachers all the time. At home, he mops the floor and makes his bed every day. We do sports in the sportsground near our estate at weekends.

I love my friend because he is always nice to me and he always helps me. Although we sometimes laugh at and play tricks on each other, we are still good friends. I hope we will study in the same secondary school.
